

THE DISSOCIATIVE DISORDERS ALLIANCE

The Dissociative Disorders Alliance (The DDA) is recruiting to its Board of Trustees. Are you a person with lived experience of a complex dissociative disorder, an ally (anyone who is a friend or supporter of a person or persons with lived experience) or a practitioner in the field (anyone that works in a professional capacity with people with complex dissociative disorders)? Would you be interested in volunteering with our emerging charity, helping The DDA to grow and develop into the UK's national charity for people with complex dissociative disorders, their allies and practitioners working in the field? If so, we would love to hear from you!

The DDA's Trustees play a vital role in making sure that The DDA achieves its core purposes. They oversee the overall management and administration of the charity. They also ensure that The DDA has a clear strategy and that the charity's work and goals are in line with its vision; an improved quality of life, healing and recovery for those living with a complex dissociative disorder.

You do not need to have previous experience of being a Trustee or working within a charity to apply. This is an opportunity for you to use and share your current skills and experience and learn new ones. We are particularly looking for people who have the capacity to take actions forwards from meetings. In addition, anyone with experience using social media, or with fundraising and grant applications would be welcomed, but these skills are not essential.

It is important to The DDA, that our Trustees are a diverse group of people who represent our community. This means that we endeavour to welcome and include people from all of the protected characteristics of the Equality Act 2010, including the many intersections of these that can be experienced by people with a complex dissociative disorder.

If you would like to express your interest in the role and get more information about it and how to apply please email The DDA's Trustees at theddaglobal@gmail.com by 30.6.25.
